FARM SUCCESSION PLANNING

WEDNESDAY, 15 MAY 2024
9.00AM TO 12.15PM

$345
WEB245NZA14

In this session you will take a strategic look at the key areas of advice you need to give your clients to ensure a smooth farm succession. Learn how to have hard conversations early on and identify what needs to be covered. Compare alternatives to traditional farm structures. Understand the implications of relationship property issues and consider the succession from an accounting perspective including the tax and financial considerations that you may need to seek further advice on.

Chair: Mark Dineen, Partner, Anthony Harper

Front-Footing the Elephant in the Room: Succession Planning for Farming Families

Succession planning can be hard on farmers' mental health. Not only does it require contemplating what life will be like beyond the days of a key family member, there can also be significant differences of opinion as to the best way forward for the passing on of assets. This can lead to anxiety, stress and the temptation to place succession planning in the "too hard basket" or put it off until later. But the more there is a delay, the more difficult the succession planning process will become. To ensure the process run smoothly – front-footing it and having conversations early is key.

- Encouraging open communication
- Having clear objectives and intention
- Ensuring the success of a farming business for the future

Presented by Rod Hansen, Partner, BDO Christchurch

Traditional Farm Structures: Are They Fit for Purpose and What Other Options are Available
